Traffic/Parking Rules and Regulations on Campus

The University has adopted certain rules and regulations pertaining to campus traffic in order to provide for the safety and security of University personnel and to minimize disturbances and congestion. These rules and regulations are based on the principle that driving a motor vehicle on campus is a privilege granted by the University, not a right. Employees who fail to abide by campus traffic and parking rules and regulations are subject to being ticketed and fined. Unpaid fines by faculty and graduate assistants will be deducted from the last paycheck of the semester. Unpaid fines will be deducted from the last paycheck of the fiscal year for classified and unclassified staff members. Students with unpaid traffic fines will not be in good financial standing with the University and will not be able to participate in early registration.

Complete information about registration of vehicles and Parking Rules and Regulations can be obtained from University Parking Operations located in Pride Hall on SGA Drive; or at our website: <http://www.southeastern.edu/admin/parking/index.html>.
